Ms Ng Shin Ein

Ms Ng Shin Ein is the co-founder of Gryphus Capital, a private equity firm.

She was previously with the Singapore Exchange, where she contributed to the development of Singapore's capital markets and the listing of international companies. She also served on the Exchange's IPO Approval Committee, providing market perspectives to the regulatory process.

Ms Ng began her career as a corporate lawyer at Lee & Lee, where she advised on mergers and acquisitions, joint ventures and fundraisings. She was admitted as an advocate and solicitor of the Supreme Court of Singapore in 1998.

She has served on the boards of listed companies in Singapore, the United States and Australia, as well as public institutions, supporting organisations through investments, privatisation strategy and periods of transition.

Ms Ng currently serves on the boards of Singapore Pools, Singapore Land Group and CSE Global. She has previously served on the boards of Grab Holdings Inc, StarHub Ltd and FairPrice.

In addition to her corporate roles, Ms Ng serves as Singapore's Non-Resident Ambassador to Hungary. In 2021, she was awarded the Commander's Cross, Order of Merit of Hungary, the second-highest civilian state award conferred by the President of Hungary.
